Easley Appoints Two To Turnpike Authority

RALEIGH - Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Sang Jim Hamilton Sr. of Winton and Robert D. Teer of Research Triangle Park to the North Carolina Turnpike Authority.

Hamilton is a retired production engineer at Newport News Shipyard where he was employed for 37 years. He is a member of the N.C. Real Estate Commission, C.S. Brown Cultural Art Center and Museum, Twelve Sportsmen's Club, Newport News Shipyard Commuter's Club and a life member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Hamilton has been the recipient of numerous awards, including the governor's award for involvement in education and the Order of the Long Leaf Pine. He received his police science certification and various management courses from Roanoke-Chowan Community College.

Teer is president and principal owner of Teer Associates, a commercial real estate development firm. He is a member of Triangle J Council of Governments, Durham-Wake Counties Research and Production Service District, National Association of Industrial and Office Property, Building Owners and Managers Association, International Facility Management Association, Research Triangle Owners and Tenants Association, Southern Growth Policies Board and the American Association of University Parks. Teer is a retired Lieutenant Colonel in the U.S. Army Reserve. He received his bachelor of science degree from East Carolina University and completed postgraduate programs at the University of Tennessee and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He also completed the Army Command and General Staff College.
